
Rev. Jonah Paul Trombetta

HULL Rev. Jonah Paul Trombetta of Hull died Saturday Octctober 31, 2009 at the South Shore Hospital in Weymouth. He was 62 years of age and was born and raised in Flushing N.Y. His most proud accomplishment was his founding and time spent as director at the Connecticut Hospice Cottage in Branford, Connecticut. A Brooklyn Diocesan Priest who transferred to Connecticut and eventually to the South Shore of Massachusetts. He was known to some as Father Jonah as a Monk in Glastonbury Abbey and to other parishioners as Father with his time spent at Saint Marys Church in Scituate. He was a dedicated priest ministering particularly to those in need. Rev. Jonah touched the lives of everyone he met with his caring heart and loving spirit. He will always stay a joy in our heart and memories forever. Beloved son of Jean (Catania) Trombetta of Hull and the late James Trombetta. Loving brother of Jamie Trombetta and his wife Carla of Pembroke and the late Patrick Trombetta. Uncle of Timothy, Dennis and Caitlyn Trombetta. Dear friend of Sister Miriam MacKenzie SC of Hull. Funeral from the McDonald Funeral Home SOUTH WEYMOUTH at 809 Main St. (Rte 18 opposite South Shore Hospital) Wednesday at 9:00 AM; followed by a Funeral Mass in Saint Marys Church, Scituate at 10:00 oclock. Relatives and friends invited. Visiting hours Tuesday from 4:008:00 P.M. Interment will be at later date. Donations may be made in Rev. Jonahs name to St. Jude Childrens Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN. 38105. mcdonald-funeralhomes.com

Published in The Patriot Ledger on November 2, 2009
